The Children Of Lir
Sequence The Story

Read the sentences. Decide which should go first, second, and so on.

_____ Aoife placed a magic spell on the children and turned them into swans.

_____ Aoife was very jealous of how much King Lir loved his children.

_____ King Lir visited his children every day and read them stories.

_____ Aoife told Lir that his children had drowned.

_____ Long ago, there lived a king called Lir, who had four beautiful children.

_____ A monk blessed the swans and they turned back into children.

_____ Aoife was banished from the Kingdom after Lir found out the truth.

_____ After the children's mother died, King Lir married a wicked woman named Aoife.

_____ King Lir died and his children were very sad.

_____ The children were free.

_____ The spell would last for nine hundred years.

The Children Of Lir
Sequence The Story

Read the sentences. Decide which should go first, second, and so on.

_____ There once lived a king called Lir.

_____ Aoife turned the children into swans.

_____ King Lir was very angry and made Aoife leave the Kingdom.

_____ King Lir died and the children were sad.

_____ Lir married a mean woman called Aoife.

_____ Aoife did not like Lir's children.

_____ The children lived on the lake for 900 years.

_____ The spell broke when they heard a church bell.

_____ The children lived happily ever after.